Realizing the Potential: How Comprehensively Are Schools Implementing RTI?

NCLD/RTI Action Network
Monitoring the Progress of the Response to Intervention Movement: A Leadership Forum
December 8, 2010
Washington DC

David Allsopp, Ph.D.
Department of Special Education
College of Education
University of South Florida

Discussion Points
• Current progress
• Shortfalls: the extent to which
  – The intent of RTI is being implemented
  – High Quality Tiered Instruction is occurring
  – Students with disabilities and other exceptionalities are part of the discussion
• The future: Building the road to the comprehensive implementation of RTI

Current Progress
States and School Districts Nationally
RTI
Some Evidence of Positive Outcomes

Building A Road To The Comprehensive Implementation of RTI

Where Are We Falling Short?
Comprehensive RTI
HQ Tiered Instruction
Intent
Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities

A Good Start ✓
Where Are We Falling Short?

Comprehensive RTI

Intent of RTI

HQ Tiered Instruction

Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities

Where Are We Falling Short?

Comprehensive RTI

Intent of RTI

Moving Ahead

Intent of RTI?

Where Are We Falling Short?

Comprehensive RTI

HQ Tiered Instruction

Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities

What is it?

High Quality Tiered Instruction

A Foundation

What is it?

Good News

Where Are We Falling Short?

Comprehensive RTI

HQ Tiered Instruction

Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities
Building A Road To The Comprehensive Implementation of RTI

A Good Start ✓

Comprehensive RTI

Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities

Intent

HQ Tiered Instruction

With Quality

Quick and Dirty

Students with Disabilities/Exceptionalities

Intent